

Fear Not, For I Am With You
Battling Anxiety With The Presence of God
Isaiah 41:1-13

The Affirmation of God's _____ (Isaiah 41:1-7)

The Assurance of God's _____ (Isaiah 41:8-10)

The Acknowledgment of God's _____ (Isaiah 41:11-13)

Equip Community Questions

1. Read Isaiah 41:1-13. Imagine yourself in captivity, anxious, and in great fear. This prophecy of coming help and the fact that God is indeed with His people gives hope to an otherwise hopeless situation. Describe how the presence of God equals hope?

2. What are some spiritual disciplines that you perform to help you acknowledge and experience the presence of God? (Examples: Scripture Reading, Worship, Prayer, Witnessing, etc.)

3. Examine Isaiah 41:10. This verse conveys five truths about God's presence for every believer. What are these truths? How does Psalm 23:4 describe the presence of God? How does the gospel, the good news of Jesus Christ, bring great comfort to a believer?

4. Who needs to hear these truths? Pray and reproduce these comforting truths to those God places upon your heart.